WEDDINGS INSIDER TIPS

PREP

THE SPEECH

With a lot of things going on during the day, you might forget to thank important people during the speech. Jot them down and never forget.

CLEAN YOUR HOUSE

Make sure the house is neat and tidy for picture-taking during the tea ceremony

BUTTER SANDWICHES

Eat loads of sandwiches filled with butter. This lines the tummy and prevents you from getting drunk too fast

DON'T BLAME IT ON THE ALCOHOL

A good gauge on the alcohol consumption of your guests is asking your siblings, cousins or even colleagues who recently wedded and compare from there

BEAUTY

SPOONFUL OF EGG WHITES

Place 2 small spoons in the freezer then put them under your eyes to help with the puffiness. Next up - beat 1 egg white until stiff peaks form and gently paint the egg whites under your eyes. You'll be amazed at how this natural trick instantly wakes up your eye area! Gently wash off with warm water after 5 minutes.

WATERPROOF IT

Choose a mascara that's waterproof; it lasts longer and withstands tears. If you really don't like the look or feel, use one coat of regular mascara, then follow up with a light coat of waterproof mascara.

FACE-ONLY

Don't use foundation on your décolletage - it can stain your dress.

GREASY HAIR

Don't wash your hair THE NIGHT before the wedding and your hairdo will stay in place much longer during the event

SALT-FREE

Reduce your sodium intake to reduce eye puffiness and see a difference in your facial contour!

TO BRING

PINS & NEEDLES

Small "assorted" coloured threads for you and your bridesmaids; a small kit that includes safety pins, buttons and a spool of white and black thread, and at least 3 needles (they break!) in case there are other issues with the dress, veil, tux, etc.

CLEAN & CLEAR

Clear nail polish does wonders for runs in pantyhose, tears in the veil, or a last minute glue job if necessary and nail clippers can be used to clip small threads or tags in a pinch, tweezers for just about everything else.

MUNCHIES

Keep at least 2 protein bars in your bag in case you get the munchies

RED PACKETS

Have extra red packets on standby and place them on the reception table for those who forgot to bring one along

ALE TO THE RESCUE

Fill champagne flutes with ginger ale for the traditional wedding 'yum seng'. That way, flutes look uniform during picture taking

EMERGENCY KIT

Keep everything perky and in place with Hollywood Tape, your breath smelling fresh with mints and a small compact mirror with you in case of emergencies!

TALC

Dash talcum powder on your white gown on any grease stains to cover it up
